The architects made a journey through different styles, achieving an eclectic design that takes advantage of the ample natural lighting of this historic building, conceiving unparalleled spaces dedicated to lovers of fine arts, culture and variety. The colonial design gives us large windows and doors arranged to allow ample natural light. The stage of luminous environmental design was fundamental to ensure that Casa Variedades integrates the use of natural light, giving value to spaces and shapes, creating artistic details that enhance the design through the perception of the play of light and ...
