Silver Bay is a new residential development in Marbella, a central neighborhood of Panama City known for its convenient location and walkable lifestyle. Surrounded by restaurants, cafés, shopping, and major business centers, the area appeals to both residents and visitors looking to stay close to everything the city has to offer. Scheduled for completion in the first quarter of 2028, the project features fully furnished residences designed for flexibility and ease of ownership. Owners can choose to live in the property, lease it long-term, or take advantage of the growing short-term rental market, as Silver Bay is Airbnb-friendly and allows independent property management. With modern amenities, competitive HOA fees of approximately $2 per square meter, and a location that remains in demand throughout the year, Silver Bay offers an opportunity to own a turnkey property in one of Panama City's...
