A19 Cincuentenario is a modern and sustainable residential development located in Coco del Mar, an exclusive neighborhood in Panama City, between Parque Omar and Panama Bay, along Avenida Cincuentenario. The project is designed with a strong emphasis on bioclimatic architecture and sustainability, taking advantage of the climate, natural light, and surrounding environment to enhance residents' quality of life while reducing energy consumption. Concept and Design The project features bioclimatic architecture that integrates Panama's tropical climate to optimize thermal comfort and energy efficiency. Design solutions include spacious balconies, sunshades, and natural cross-ventilation, which help reduce the need for air conditioning and promote overall well-being. Green areas and landscaping with native plant species encourage biodiversity and support pollination. Units and Layouts A19 offer...
