Listing ID: 002602428234

Only nine units available, don't hesitate! It's not just a residential project, it's a work of art to be contemplated, inhabited, and felt. Inspired by art and contrast, this boutique building in the heart of the Old Town stands as a piece of abstract architecture that respects the past while looking toward the future. Its façade preserves the colonial aesthetic of the surroundings with warm textures and historical character, while its modern interior, filled with light thanks to its large windows, proposes a contemporary, expressive, and open way of life. With four levels offering ocean views from the upper floors and both private and communal terraces, Doña Ceci is a space created for those who value design, history, and the art of living with purpose.
