Listing ID: 002964364022

Most developments plant a few trees and call it green living. Bosco di Santa María did something else entirely — they cultivated a private forest, then built a residence worthy of it. This isn't nature as backdrop. It's nature as architecture. The canopy, the shade, the living textures surrounding every corner of Bosco were intentionally grown, shaped, and placed to create something Panama has never seen before: a home where the forest isn't outside your window — it's the reason the building exists. And then there is this. At 298 m², four bedrooms, four and a half bathrooms, and two parking spaces, this is Bosco at its most uncompromising. A floor plan that commands. Spaces that don't just accommodate life — they elevate it. Four bedrooms of absolute quiet. Four and a half bathrooms finished without a single concession to ordinary. Room enough to live, to host, to spread out...
