A19 was built for a generation that thinks differently about home. Not just where they live — but how. Eco-conscious, design-forward, and alive with greenery, this is a building that works as hard as the people inside it. The solar panels aren't an afterthought — they power everything, including the automated irrigation system that keeps A19's lush greenery thriving year-round without lifting a finger. The plants grow. The energy flows. The building breathes. And you simply live in it. At 74 m², one bedroom and one bathroom, this is a space designed for those who know that the right size is the one that fits your life — not the one that impresses people who don't live there. Smart proportions, modern finishes, and a layout that makes every square meter count. Outside your door, A19 delivers everything a connected, active lifestyle needs: a pool, a fully ...
