A19 was built for a generation that thinks differently about home. Not just where they live — but how. Eco-conscious, design-forward, and alive with greenery, this is a building that works as hard as the people inside it. The solar panels aren't an afterthought — they power everything, including the automated irrigation system that keeps A19's lush greenery thriving year-round without lifting a finger. The plants grow. The energy flows. The building breathes. And you simply live in it. And then there is this unit. At 210 m² plus a 44 m² wraparound balcony, this is A19 without limits. Three bedrooms, three and a half bathrooms, a full living and dining room, an open kitchen with pantry, a service bedroom and bathroom, and a dedicated laundry room — every function of a complete family home, wrapped in floor-to-ceiling modern design and finished with the same eco-intelligent DNA...
