ATTENTION SAN FRANCISCO RENTERS In the current economic environment, mortgage interest rates have risen considerably, hovering around 7% at most local banks. However, this project offers a unique financial exception in the market that allows you to secure your home with an approximate rate of 5.5%. If you are currently paying between $1,200 and $1,500 in monthly rent, you have the financial capacity to acquire your own apartment today, freezing the price and stopping paying someone else's mortgage. EXCLUSIVE BENEFIT: INITIAL CAPITAL SAVINGS We understand that for foreign clients or independent professionals, banks typically require a 30% down payment. We have secured a special bank approval that reduces this requirement to just 10% down payment. This means you save almost $40,000 in initial capital outlay, allowing you to maintain your liquidity while acquiring a high-value property. LAST 2 UNITS AVAIL...
