As tourism, business travel, and remote work continue to expand across Latin America, VENTU offers a unique opportunity to invest in one of Panama City's most promising hospitality-oriented residential developments. Located in the vibrant Balboa District, just minutes from the Cinta Costera, Casco Antiguo, financial district, universities, hospitals, restaurants, shopping areas, and Metro stations, this innovative concept combines private ownership with professional hospitality management, creating an ideal property for short and mid-term rentals. Designed for modern travelers and international professionals, VENTU offers premium amenities including a panoramic rooftop, swimming pool, fitness center, coworking spaces, rooftop cinema, BBQ stations, paddle court, event room, and multiple social areas that significantly enhance occupancy rates and guest experience. For investors, the project represents an e...
