Panama - Coclé

Nata

Listing ID: 003244108017

Lots A & B represents a strategic investment opportunity in Coclé, located in El Potrero with paved road access and just 9 minutes from the Inter-American Highway. With a combined area of over 24 hectares, this property offers versatile topography, access to essential services such as electricity, and proximity to natural water sources, making it ideal for high-impact developments. Its prime location near Penonomé and Aguadulce—areas experiencing steady economic growth—positions it as an attractive option for residential, commercial, or industrial projects. Its connectivity and accessibility enhance its logistical value and support strong short- and medium-term appreciation potential. Key development opportunities include residential urbanization projects, catering to the growing housing demand in Panama's interior, as well as photovoltaic solar parks, taking advantage ...
