Investment Opportunity: Income-Generating Farm in Altos de Capira Discover an exceptional investment opportunity in Altos de Capira with this strategically located farm along the Via Interamericana. Priced competitively at $12 per square meter (negotiable), this property offers unparalleled growth potential in one of the region's most promising areas. The farm includes a barn and presents a unique land rental option, currently generating income through contracts with the COOPUGAN cooperative and leases for cattle stallions. This not only ensures a steady income stream but also provides a solid platform for future expansions or commercial projects. Ideal for high-level investors looking to maximize their returns, this farm combines a prime location, existing infrastructure, and a proven income model. Don't miss the chance to be part of Capira's economic growth and invest in a property with hi...
